Please place them in the black box outside the office door before you leave this morning.

RUSH CREEK PRAYER TEAM

As we continue to embody what it means to be the church, we will more and more offer up prayer to the Lord on behalf of one another! One of the ways we have helped to facilitate this important calling at Rush Creek has been through our church-wide prayer line. We love that so many within our church family are able to share prayer requests this way, but in light of the increased volume of requests we are making a few adjustments we want you to be aware of! From now on we will only be sending out one email per day (if necessary) that will contain a list of all the prayer requests that have come in over the previous 24 hours. This will help us to not overwhelm your inbox with emails all throughout the day, as well as help our gracious volunteers who run the prayerline not have to sit by their computer all day long, but rather have a single time each day where they can compile and then send out the requests from that day. On rare occasions emergency prayer requests that are time sensitive may get sent out on an individual basis, but the majority of requests will now be grouped together in our daily prayerline email. Thank you for understanding, and thank you most of all for lifting our church family up in prayer!

If you have a prayer request or you would like to be added to the Rush PrayerTeam, please email: Prayerteam@rushcreekbc.org.
